Dear Jeff,

Bulgarian Patent Application No. 89276
Your File: PM-1322 (Bulgaria)
Our File : 30591

Thank you for your letter of 8th December, which was rather delayed in transit and reached us only just before Christmas. I have now managed to prepare instructions for our Bulgarian Associates and enclose a copy for approval as you ask. In view of the shortage of time and postal problems, however, I think it will be wise for me to send the instructions within the next week, even if I have to ask that work be held back pending your final approval.

Although I would clearly prefer to have a main claim along the lines of the draft you have previously seen (and which is not transmitted again here) it occurs to me on a review of the case that this text may still be too functional for the Bulgarians. I have therefore included in the instructions yet another version in which functional statements are almost totally eliminated.

Please let me have your comments as quickly as possible.

Yours sincerely,

J. H. Bass
